Cookie Policy

1. What are cookies

Cookies are small text files placed on your device when you visit a website. They help the website function properly, improve user experience and provide information to the site owner.

2. How we use cookies

Romanian Orthodox Church Wolverhampton uses cookies to:

- Ensure the website functions correctly
- Improve website performance and security
- Understand how visitors use the website
- Enable embedded content and integrations (where applicable)

3. Types of cookies we use

Essential cookies

These cookies are necessary for the website to function and cannot be switched off. They include cookies that enable core functionality such as page navigation and form submissions.

Functional cookies

These cookies allow the website to remember choices you make (such as language or preferences) to provide enhanced functionality.
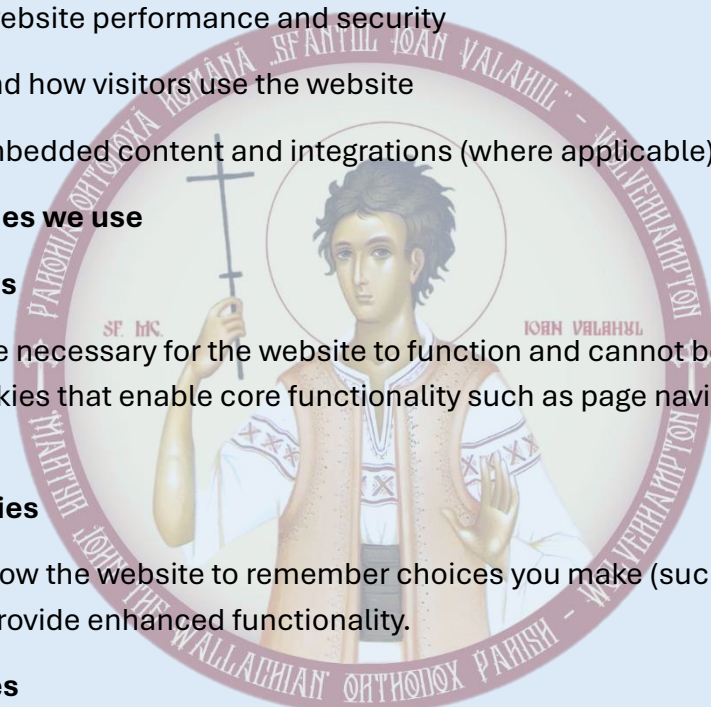

Analytics cookies

We may use analytics tools (such as Google Analytics) to understand how visitors interact with the website. These cookies help us improve content and user experience. Analytics cookies are used only with your consent.

Third-party cookies

Some pages may include content from third parties (e.g. embedded videos, social media links). These third parties may set their own cookies according to their own privacy policies.

4. Managing cookies

When you first visit our website, you will be presented with a cookie banner allowing you to accept or reject non-essential cookies. You can also control cookies through your browser settings at any time.

Please note that disabling certain cookies may affect the functionality of the website.

5. Changes to this Cookie Policy

We may update this Cookie Policy from time to time to reflect changes in technology, law, or website functionality. Any updates will be published on this page.

6. Contact
